The art of APERITIVO

A centuries old beloved Italian tradition, aperitivo – ‘the pre-dinner drink’ - is the quintessential cultural expression of Italy.

Originating from the Latin ‘aperire’, which means ‘to open’, the ritual of aperitivo is intended to ‘open up’ your appetite and is a local custom that has been celebrated throughout Italy since the 1700’s.

CREATING THE FINEST BEERS

SINCE 1846

Menabrea is made at Italy's oldest active brewery in Italy, using water that flows naturally from pure Alpine glaciers straight to the brewery. This, alongside their unique maturing process and five generations of experience, gives Menabrea its signature taste

We recently paid a visit to the picturesque brewery, nestled in the northern city of Biella. Greeted with warmth hospitality from the CEO and family, we absorbed the rich heritage tracing back to 1846. As we sampled this award-winning beer amongst the towering fermenting tanks and gleaming copper kettles, a newfound appreciation was gained for the dedication behind every bottle to leave their arches.
